GUERILLA WAR BREAKS OUT IN W. VA.

Coal Fields of Mingo County Scene of Action

TRY OUTFLANKING

Towns Where Trouble is Are Within Seven Miles of Each Other—Passengers Dodge Bullets

Williamson, W. Va., May 13.—Guerilla warfare, with all odds apparently favoring the forces opposing the State, was being waged last night in the grim mountains of the strike torn Mingo county coal field.

Beginning soon after dawn yesterday morning at the little mining town of Merrimac, four miles up the Tug River from this city, a fusillade of shots was poured from the mountain side successively into Merrimac, Rawl, Sprigg and Matewan, W. Va., and McCarr, Ky.

All available State police and deputy sheriffs centred in Williamson, were rushed to the scene by train and automobile, but, according to reports, they had been unable at a late hour to check the shooting.

Word has been received here from Charleston that Governor Morgan has responded to the request of officials of Mingo county and has asked the War Department for Federal troops to restore order in the county. U. S. troops are expected from Camp Sherman, O.

Harry C. Staton, a State prohibition officer and merchant at Sprigg, was killed by a bullet from the mountains, and Noah Phillips and a young man named Calvert, employees of the White Star Coal Co., commissary at Merrimac, have been seriously wounded. Rumors of other killings and woundings have been received at headquarters of the State police here.

Last night a handful of State police, about twenty in number, were reported to be working their way over the mountains between Merrimac and Rawl, seeking to get above and outflank their hidden foes.

This force was led by Captain J. R. Brockus, commander of the State police in the Williamson district. A score of deputy sheriffs, under Chief Deputy John H. Hall, were co-operating with Captain Brockus and his men.

Yesterday's outbreak, the worst since the Matewan battle of last May 19, in which ten persons were killed, including the Mayor of Matewan, had all the appearances of a prearranged attack.

The towns visited with the hail of lead are all within seven miles of each other, and lie in a narrow valley on the banks of the Tug River, which here separates West Virginia from Kentucky. The firing yesterday and last night came from the mountains on both sides of the river, according to the State police.

Terror reigned in the towns in the zone of fire as night fell and it was learned the authorities had failed to apprehend any of the attacking force. The bulk of the shooting therefore, has been done at night, when lighted houses afforded easy targets for the hidden riflemen. Virtually all lights were extinguished last night and residents kept close under cover.

"Bullets were peppering down from The outflanking expedition led by Captain Brockus, despite its extreme ly hazardous character, was said by the authorities to be virtually the only hope of routing or capturing the attackers.

The State police were virtually helpless during the day, as the attacking forces in the mountains were completely screened by foliage and boulders, while the police in order to attempt a direct attack, would have been obliged to cross the open valley and climb the rugged slopes in full view of the hidden marksmen.

Sergeant David Peterson, of the State police, who led a squad of

ENGLAND AGAIN FACES CRISIS

Trainmen Consider Support of Miners to Tighten Coal Blockade

CONSIDER STRIKE

Would Mean Embargo—Cabinet Ponders Crisis—Clerks to Man Ship—Aquitania to Sail Saturday

London, May 13.—Great Britain tomorrow will be facing an industrial crisis almost equal to that of the "black Friday" several weeks ago, when the labor triple alliance, composed of the miners, the railroad men and the transport workers, split for the time being and called off the projected general strike.

Last night the national executive committee of the union of locomotive engineers and firemen was meeting to consider the question of supporting the striking miners by refusing to huul any imported coal.

A number of branches of the union are reported to have already voted overwhelmingly in favor of some such action. The transport workers also decided to "tighten the coal blockade" and tomorrow, after the executives of the national railway meet to discuss the situation, they will confer with the other nonstriking branch of the triple alliance. This conference may result in renewed action by all three branches acting once more in harmony.

Such action is not likely in any event to result in an immediate general strike, but may very probably take the form of an embargo on the transportation of coal. This would mean that the men would be disobeying orders and would be discharged, whereupon the unions would probably call out all the men as a protest.

Whether tomorrow's meeting will take such a grave decision as is now being discussed depends for the most part on how sure the executive

Change In Highway

Important Change in Virginia Route

Washington, D. C., May 13.—The executive committee of the Lee Highway Association, which is directing the building of the memorial road from New York to New Orleans and San Francisco, today announced important changes in the route of the rightway through Virginia.

It will follow a Southwest diagonal to New Orleans. A year ago it was decided to run the Virginia section from Washington through Alexandria to Winchester by a Northwest direction, and thence Southwest down the Valley of Virginia.

In order to make the Virginia line harmonize with the general Southwest diagonal of the highway, the executive committee today directed that it should extend from Washington across the New Key Bridge to Falls Church and thence by the most direct route to Fairfax Courthouse.

From the latter point it will proceed by the two Manassas battlefields to Warrenton, Sperryville and Luray to New-Market, where it will join the original line down the valley of Virginia.

NEED OF NEW SCHOOL DISCUSSED BY BOARD

Question Will be Taken up With City Council

PERMIT SUNDAY BALL

Principal Haydon Tells of Meeting of Principals at U of V—Want Flags On School Buildings

The question of getting city council to erect a new public school building was discussed by Dr. S. B. Moore, chairman of the city school board, at a meeting of the board held Wednesday night and it was decided to again take the matter up with city council.

The payment of a trust of $11,000 on the Lee School lot was requested and the chairman was requested to confer with city council reference to the matter.

A resolution was adopted permitting athletic sports on the high school grounds on Sunday.

The board decided to have half day session Confederate Memorial Day, May 24 and National Memorial Day, May 30. A communication from Alexandria Council No. 5, Order Fraternal Americans, requesting that flags be flown from each school building was referred to a committee with the request that immediate action be taken.

R. C. Haydon, principal of the high school, appeared before the board and made an interesting report of the recent meeting of high school principals held at the University of Virginia. Among the subjects discussed he stated were closer relations between school boards and principals; too many subjects being taught; teaching not thorough enough; the shortening of the school day; vocational courses recommended and others.

Dr. Moore announced that the Parker-Gray school had accumulated about $700 wished this fund used to introduce domestic science and manuel training in the new school. The petitoine request the use of the basement for this purpose and that partitions be installed and the committee on school houses and furniture was instructed to have same installed.

Superintendent Sweeney submitted his report and he told of the track meet scheduled for tomorrow.

The appointment of a supervisor of instruction was discussed with the board by Superintendent of Instruction Hart who was present.

A copy of the resolution passed by council turning over the high school and grounds and the Parker-Gray building and grounds to the school board was received and the trustees accepted charge of the property.

Several communications from teachers were referred to a committee. Repairs to several school buildings were reported.

Attending the meeting were Dr. S. B. Moore, chairman; and Messrs. E. S. Leadbeater, C. E. Tennesson, Gilbert J. Cox, S. H. Lunt, Ashby Bladen R. M. Colvin, James Bayne, C. E. Dare, T. Calvert Perry, T. E. Dyson and Supt. W. H. Sweeney.

LARGE AUDIENCE SEES "SPRINGTIME"

Excellent Performance Given For Hospital Benefit

CHILDREN MAKE HIT

All of Participants Praised For the Able Manner in Which They Handled Their Parts

"Springtime" at the opera house last night made the large audience present forget the disagreeable weather outside, for the performance was such a complete success from every standpoint that rain could not dampen the enthusiasm of the crowd.

The Citizen's Band played the overture and also during the intermissions, and was greatly enjoyed.

Miss Katherine Carroll Waller and Mrs. Edgar Warfield were at the piano, and with their playing it would have been almost impossible for the dancers not to keep step.

The two "leading ladies," Miss Evelyn Howard and Miss Louise Griffith shared honors equally, the acting of both being far above the amateur. Miss Howard also has a beautiful voice and her singing added new laurels to her credit.

A. J. Rhodes as "Bobby Brewster," was splendid, his acting is always that of a professional, and his make up in the various acts was perfect. Allen Roberts played the part of the young lover splendidly, always natural and easy in his manner.

Miss Julia Duncan as an old lady was all that could be desired, one could not realize they were looking upon a young girl. Her rendition of her lines was absolutely correct.

Miss Mary Ellen Nalls as the prim, Puritan type, was at all times correct, she acted and looked the part to perfection. Her brother, James Browster, as portrayed by Jack Pohl, was an entirely opposite type, and Mr. Pohl proved that the part was placed in capable hands, for he was indeed the prosperous pill maker, never forgetting the source of his wealth.

Miss Eugenia Griffith carried out perfectly the part assigned her and was most charming as the contented wife.

Abigail Tompkins, the spinster, was played by Miss Abbie Hoxton, who was perfect in the part. Miss Hoxton is a vivacious brunette and always good in any part she under takes.

Miss Nina Fulton had one of the most trying parts in the cast, and carried it through splendidly. Miss Mary Hunt Roberts Miss Margaret Paff and Miss Ruth LeHew were most attractive in their parts and their acting was natural and easy. Mr. Everett James carried out the part of a rather wild young man in good form, and Mr. Milton Stonnell was indeed the correct valet.

In the children's parts too much cannot be said of little Misses Margaret Ogden, Edwina Carver, Margaret Eggborn and Master Bert Rodier, they were all far above the average child actress or actor.

The musical numbers were good and the dancing excellent. The maids of honor and best men had a drill that was fine. The bridesmaids' dance was most effective and in their 1868 costume the girls were charming. The maids were dainty and efficient and received hearty applause during their dance.

A dance called "Spirits of Memory" was beautifuly carried out by a group of twelve pretty, graceful girls, and with the Mardi Gras chorus was one of the most effective scenes, the latter also containing twelve pretty girls in a graceful dance with attractive costumes.

The "Ragtime Jury Maids" tried a case with dispatch, with the assistance of their powder puffs, and a most effective "shimmy."

The wedding guest and May day chorus was the paramount musical numbers, and was greatly enjoyed.

The "Rainbow Trail" was effective and artistic, the girls dancing well and looking most attractive.

Last but by far not least was a "Springtime" chorus and scene by forty-eight little girls, charming in their white frocks with flower garlands, and each little one a picture of grace and sweetness. They did their play scene beautifully, winning prolonged applause. The director, W. Grant La Mont, is a wonderfuly efficient and talented director and has trained the large cast in a short time, putting on a show worthy of "big time."

Tonight will be the last performance, and with good weather, the opera house should be filled to the doors.

Tag Day Tomorrow

Will be Sold on Streets for Sunday School Baseball League

Tomorrow will be Sunday School base ball league day. The young ladies of the Sunday schools represented in the league will be out bright and early selling tags to insure the league ample funds to conduct the business of administration in a perfectly satisfactory manner. The league will have its final meeting tonight at the Chamber of Commerce before the opening of the league season next Tuesday evening. The meeting will be called at 8 o'clock and after the business part of the meeting the boys will busy themselves tying tags for the ladies to dispose of the following day.

HURLS GLASS AT BOARDER'S HEAD

Boarding House Proprietor Incensed When Boarder Breaks Plate

RUNS AWAY—JULY 22

Frank Jackson Says He Is Scared in Dark When Someone Is Behind Him Fined $35

That the life of the average boarding house keeper is not altogether one bed of roses and that they are sometimes driven to do things that would not ordinarily come under the heading of "Good Table Manners" was exemplified last night at the boarding house of Crit Spottswood, colored.

Anderson Banket, colored, is a boarder at Spottswood's home. It might be added, however, that he is not the star boarder. Banket while engaged in eating his dinner last night, dropped a plate and it was broken. Just when this happened Spottswood hurled a glass at Banket's head with telling effect, Banket fell pprostrate to the floor.

Banket obtained a warrant for Spottswood's arrest and Policemen Lawrence Padgett and Talbot put into execution the warrant.

Banket told the court that the dropping of the plate was purely accidental, and just as it crashed on the floor a glass hurled with considerable force, struck him over the back of the head.

Another story was that told by Spottswood who claimed that his boarder had broken many dishes and he added: "He eats and won't pay" The accused also told the court that he had been unwell and was unable to physically handle the boarder and for that reason used the glass as his weapon to bring his boarder to a realization of his bad table manners The court settled the case by fining Spottswood $5.

On July 22 last, Frank Jackson ran away when in Meade's court and even two pistol shots fired at him failed to stop his mad dash for freedom. Nothing since was seen of him till this morning when he was charged with attempting to break in to the table of George Meade. Policemen Magner and Durrer arrived at the time the hot July night and captured one of the men, and he was fined $20. Since that time Jackson had been living in Washington. Jackson denied the charge and told the court that his reason for running was that he heard some one walking behind him and it was a dark night and he was scared. "Do you run every time you hear some one behind you at night? asked the court. "In the dark I do," said Jackson. Thirty-five dollars or thirty days was the court's sentence.

The testimony of Policemen Nowland and Cline was that Carrie Sanders, colored, was more or less disorderly last night and beside her was a bottle of extract. She made no statement and was fined $5.

A colored man giving the name of Dennis Harris, driver of a mail wagon, was charged by Policeman Miller with failing to have a light on his machine and a fine of $10 was imposed.

Dollar Day is coming. A large number of merchants of the city have co-operated again on the Dollar Day idea which is now observed several times a year. On this day the public will be offered unsurpassed values at one dollar on many articles of well known reliability. Dollar Day is coming soon watch the Gazette for the date.

A War for Life. Of all the malignant diseases which have afflicted the children of men none has come to be more deadly and terrible than that which in its many forms, is spoken of as "cancer." Like the rattler, when it strikes, it strikes to kill, only not mercifully at one clear swoop but inch by inch and hour by hour eating its way through blood and tissue. When it comes into the body, the doors of hope are almost closed.

It is largely due to one little Frenchwoman that hope has not altogether been abandoned for the sure of cancer. Mme. Marie Curie has kept alive the fight against cancer steadfastly and unflinchingly. From that day years ago when, together with her husband the late Prof. Pierre Curie she startled the world with the announcement of the discovery of radium and its marvellous power, until now this indefatigable laboratory worker has kept right to her dream of making radium sometime, somehow, a sure cure for cancer. She is now in this country to receive from the women of America a present of a gram of radium worth at least $100,000, as a token of their faith, admiration and esteem. She will receive the precious gift, with which she hopes to accomplish so much from the hands of President Harding in the White House.

It is a fine thing the women of the country have done to recognize in this way the greatest single contribution any one of their sex have ever made to civilization. True the fight against cancer has not yet been won. Radium has failed as a cure in thousands of instance where it has succeeded in hundreds. But the great war for the lives of millions of suffering human beings will not end with these few first skirmishes. Radium can cure and the science of its use needs only to be perfected. Mme. Curie's visit to America at this time will hearten and freshen the forces of science to renew with more and more courage the fight against cancer.

Washington Honored Abroad. One hundred and forty-five years ago George Washington of His Majesty's Royal Colony of Virginia, County of Westmoreland, was leading a rebellion against the British Crown and Empire. Today busts of Washington are becoming as numerous in England as those of Shakespeare and Wellington. Those who are always so busy trying to make trouble between the English-speaking people of the world should ponder upon this unmistakable evidence of how time, a common language, tradition and history have closed and healed the old breach.

No less than three busts and one statue of Washington are to be set up in England during the next two months. The busts are all copied from the famous Houdon Statue in the State House at Richmond and the statue is an exact replica of the one of which Virginia is so proud. The first bust will be set up in the town hall at Liverpool on May 27. The second will be unveiled in St. Paul's cathedral, London, close to the graves of Nelson and Wellington, on Memorial Day. The third will be placed in Sulgrave Manor on June 21. And the full sized replica of the Houdon statue, presented by the State of Virginia, is to be erected in Trafalgar Square, London on June 30.

Virginians are glad and happy that one of their own raised up at a time of great peril to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" to make good, with pen, sword and prudence, freedom on a new continent, should now be one of the strongest links in binding together in friendship and good-will the great Anglo-Saxon race.

Dublin Castle Sees Signs of Conciliation

Dublin, May 13.—The recent meeting of Sir James Craig, Premier-Designate for Ulster and Eamonn de Valera, the Irish Republican leader, "must be regarded as an event of the first political importance," says a statement issued today by the authorities in Dublin Castle. The statement adds:

"With the doubtful exceptions of the convention of 1917-1918, which was held at a time when the authority of Redmond (the late John E. Redmond, president of the United Irish League) to speak on behalf of the majority of southern Irishmen already was seriously challenged, this is the first occasion in modern history in which duly accredited representatives of North and South Ireland met of their own initiative without the intervention of British statesmen to discuss the differences so long dividing the two sections of the Irish people.

"And although neither Sir James nor Mr. de Valera appears to have emerged from the interview with their convictions in any degree shaken, the fact of their having entered into direct negotiations has produced an impression on the minds of men of all parties of materially improved prospects for peace. The approval given the meeting by the press is a further encouraging sign of a growing disposition towards a settlement by conciliation and compromise."

Bank Runner And Guard Held Up by Bandits

Chicago, May 13.—A uniformed policeman assigned to escort a messenger for the State Commercial and Savings Bank failed to daunt five bandits yesterday. They held up the policeman and the messenger and escaped with approximately $7000.

The bank messenger was 75 years old. When he and the policeman reached a corner, they noticed, five men with ladders and buckets apparently preparing to wash windows. As the messenger aproached, one of the men hit him with a file and another knocked the policeman down with a bucket. The robbers escaped in an automobile, after forcing the police man to walk away a block, threatening to shoot him if he turned around

AWAITING THE ELECTRIC CHAIR

A boy of 21 sat in the death cell, awaiting execution for murder, convicted on circumstantial evidence.

A former hoodlum and member of a gang, when caught in the near vicinity of the crime, he was the logical suspect, and failing funds, lacking friends and money, together with false evidence, sent him to prison to await the electric chair.

One day a section of a women's magazine came into his hands. There was a department devoted to the needs and problems of the men in the service and their families. The idea of the personal service suggested all through it, appealed strongly to him and he wrote to the woman editor, asking, not for help or sympathy, but for reading matter with which to while away the remaining weeks of life. He told her nothing of his trouble. Only of his one good friend who had visited him and was doing everything possible in his behalf.

Being a real woman with boys of her own, she sent a bundle of books and magazines and asked to have his story. Furthermore she wrote to the warden of the prison and to the boy's Salvation Army Friend. From these two men came the story of the hasty trial, its details and conviction. The two men who had tried to help the boy, the lawyer who had volunteered to defend him had died before the trial was completed, and his colleague sent away to Europe on a special government mission, and was not on hand to put forth the effort for a new trial.

Before any progress toward a new trial could be made the evidence relating to the case had to be printed. The cost of this was $75, and nowhere had this boy and friends to produce such a sum. A bed-ridden mother, a widowed sister with two small children could hardly keep themselves, let alone help him.

When the Editor Woman received this letter from the Salvation Army men, she promptly sent the $75 from her own slender resources, with the instruction to get evidence quickly. They began to struggle to get some one of sufficient importance to move legal wheels to re-open the case. When all appeals to officials, the ministry and other agencies failed, attended by the time-worn phrase, "Let the law take its course," this determined woman resolved to appeal to another woman. A telegram was sent to the wife of the editor of one of the greatest cosmopolitan newspapers in the Boys' Home city with the plea that the case be reopened, to establish the possible innocence of a boy charged with murder.

This brought results—for the newspaper took up the case, reprinted all of the evidence, brought to light several points in the boy's favor overlooked before. The case was reopened and in a very few days on the strength of the new evidence thus developed, the boy was released and the identity of the real murderer was discovered. Thus through the patient, kindly visitation of the Salvation Army Prison Worker, who had exhausted every resource within his power to get interest aroused in a case which he believed deserving of investigation, machinery was set in motion which gave back to society a youth of 21 whose two years of confinement, under the death shadow had made of him a loyal, Christian citizen, and prevented a miscarriage of justice.

Bad Blood Disfigures With Unsightly Eruptions

The mortifying and unsightly skin and facial disfigurements on young people from 14 to 20 years old are seldom due to anything worse than impure blood. The young bodies are undergoing important changes, and the blood stream is temporarily disordered—often filled with poisonous waste matter.

In such cases only internal blood remedies can relieve. The impurities must be cast out and the vital fluid enriched before the disfigurements are cleared up. For this you naturally want an efficient, tested blood remedy—like S.S.S., the famous old herb medicine.

Start the young folks with S.S.S. today (your druggist has it), and write us about their condition, addressing Chief Medical Advisor, 841 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Georgia.

ROSEMONT DEL RAY
BRADDOCK MT. IDA.
ST. ELMO

There has been such a demand for tickets to the concert of the Hargrove Class "Kitchen Cabinet Band" which will be heard tonight at 8 o'clock at Mt. Vernon Avenue School Del Ray, that anyone failing to secure tickets may pay at the door. By special request, Miss Naomi Kidwell of Del Ray, will give a monologue entitled, "Her First Pudding," which will be an admirable addition to the "Band." Don't say afterwards, "I wish I had gone," but be one of the fortunates who did go—fair weather or foul. Admission 15 and 25 cents; ice cream, cake and candy for sale.

Mrs. W. B. Lunsford, and little girls of Del Ray, are visiting relatives in Delaplane, Va., this week end.

There was a well attended meeting of the Rosemont Missionary Circle of the First Baptist Church on Monday night in the home of Mrs. Eugene Bode, in Rosemont.

Rev. Willis L. Wayts has two rather unusual topics for his services at the Del Ray Baptist Church this Sunday. His topic for the morning service will be, "The ministration of condemnation contrasted with the ministration of righteousness." The evening topic, 'Am I a dog?'

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rollins and family motored to Fredericksburg, Va., where they spent the week end.

On Tuesday afternoon a few little friends of Jack Pennypacker's gathered in the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Kate Pennypacker, on Hume Avenue, St. Elmo, and helped him happily celebrate his 5th anniversary There were several games, the most interesting of which seemed to be the toy "aeroplane" flights. The cake had five candles, the cream and other good things tasted just as good as always, and each little guest went home well pleased.

Mrs. Kate Pennypacker and Miss Anna Pennypacker, from St. Elmo, with their guests from Richmond, Mrs. Myrtle Ellett and Master Jack Pennypacker, were dinner guests Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Clayton, in their home at Aurora Hills.

Miss Linda S. Cruger has returned to her home in New York after a pleasant visit in the home of Mrs. L. D. Christie, in Rosemont.

Mrs. C. L. King and daughter, Nancy, from Rosemont, spent last Sunday in Fort Myer Heights, as guests of Mr. Arthur D. King.

Mrs. Roger Adams, of Rosemont, will spend the week end in Harrisonburg, Va., visiting her daughter, who is attending the Normal School

The "Guild" will meet Monday night in Emanuel Episcopal Church in Braddock, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Christopher Curtin with her daughters, Miss Jeanette Curtin, and Mrs. Katie Lambert, of Alexandria, were guests last Sunday of her daughter, Mrs. Richard E. Crane, on Mt. Vernon Avenue, Braddock.

Yesterday Mrs. J. Patterson, of Petworth, D. C., spent the day with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Duncan, in Del Ray.

Mrs. George Ooley, from Fort Wayne, Ind., is spending a few days in St. Elmo in the home of her sister, Mrs. J. V. Verney.

Mr John T. King with his wife and daughter, Elizabeth, from Norfolk, Va., were recent week end guests of his brother, Mr. C. L. King, in Rosemont.

Mrs. George Lebold who has been visiting for some time in the home of Mrs. Walter C. Davis, in Del Ray, returned last Sunday to her home in Chcago, Ill.

Miss Ethel Lee Grossman, of Mt. Ida. spent the week end with friends in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Feagan, of Del Ray, are rejoicing in the birth of a little daughter at the Alexandria Hospital on Tuesday of this week.

In spite of the steady downpour of rain yesterday, the "luncheon" given by Circle No. 2, of Del Ray M. E Ladies' Aid was a great success, everything sold out.

Mrs. P. Heisley who has been visiting her niece, Mrs. S. H. Feagan, in Del Ray, returned on Monday to her home in Williamsport, Pa.

The "Yates Class" of Del Ray M. E. Sunday School held a regular business meeting on Tuesday night in the home of Miss Naomi Kidwell, in Del Ray. At this meeting they completed raising their pledge of $25 for the conference fund for Superannuated Ministers. Following the business session was a short but delightful session of music and refreshments. The piano playing of Miss Esther Pyles, a guest for the evening, was especially enjoyed, and everyone felt a regret that she is soon going to leave Del Ray.

Mr. H. L. Burke is freshening up the residence of Mr. William E. Kidwell, in Del Ray. The house when completed, will be a light cream color with green shutters and white trimmings.

committees feel of the obedience of all the men to the strike orders. It is said that fear of a breakaway from the unions of many of the men had a great deal to do with the cancellation of the recently threatened general strike, and whether this situation has changed since the miners quit work remains to be seen

The Cabinet at its meeting yesterday afternoon took up the whole situation and this morning Premier Lloyd George received two parliamentary delegations, which discussed the crisis with him.

Among them was the Duke of Northumberland, who, besides being one of the most conservative of British Conservatives, is the principal "exposer" of the alleged gigantic Bolshevik plot which is to start the British labor revolution.

In this connection it is perhaps significant that Sir Basil Thompson, chief of the Scotland Yard secret service, had an interview with the Prime Minister and afterward went to the home office with Secretary Short to discuss the matter further

An amusing side issue in the industrial crisis arose yesterday when it was learned that Sir Percy Bates, chairman of the Cunard Line, has gone to Southampton, where he will join the crew of the Aquitania as a steward, with 400 of the lines employes, directors, managers and clerks, who will act as stewards, cooks, butchers and bakers, because of the strike of the national union of these ship workers.

Joseph Cotter, president of the Stewards' Union, stated today that the sailors and firemen would refuse to sail Saturday on the Aquitania with "black leg" volunteers. (He was referring to the office staff of the Cunard Line in Liverpool.) At the office of the Cunard Line here it was said yesterday afternoon nothing to bear out Cotter's statement had been heard, and as far as the line officials knew the Aquitania would sail Saturday.

U. S. CRAB PROTECTION URGED

Washington, May 13.—Federal protection for crabs was recommended to Secretary Hoover by representatives of the fishing industries of the country who conferred with him on means for closer co-operation between the fish industry and the Government. The declining crab supply, the Secretary was told in the recommendations, suggests the need for closed seasons.

Other recommendations included extension for an additional six months of the 12 month limit on the storage of frozen fish, lower freight rates on fish and the issuance by the Bureau of Fisheries of bulletins showing available supplies of fish.

SPORTS

The Cardinal Athletic Club baseball team will play the Registers nine of the Treasury Department, on the Alexandria High School grounds, Sunday, at 3 o'clock p. m.

The Cardinals have not put their best players in the games played during the present season and that is the cause for the loss of three of four contests.

When the "old birds" get their swings loosened up so they can work them without trouble, then watch the feathers fly—the battle between Dan Gallhooley's and Pat O'Casey's fighting roosters who fought until they were featherless, and then like boy whose clothes was stolen while he was taking a dip in the swimming pool, had to go home in a barrel, won't be in it with them.

While the Cardinals have many new players unknown to Alexandria baseball fans, there are none more popular than Raymond Astryke one of the most brilliant old time sand lotters, who is now triyng his skill in the baseball line after a lay-off of several years. He has played in three games and has proved by his heavy batting and fine playing that he is atrue 1921 season come back.

Another former all around diamond star and one of the cleanest and most gentlemanly baseball players that ever played with the Cardinals—Grafton "Bird" Trenary—will play with the First Baptist Church team, of the Sunday School Baseball League. His fellow athletes have every reason to be proud of him, for such men as "Bird" are a credit to the great national baseball game.

The Cardinals will play the Knickerbockers, in Georgetown, Sunday, May 22, at 3 o'clock p. m.

"Aren't the Cardinals afraid to visit Georgetown and play the mighty Knickerbockers on their home grounds?" The question is easily answered: "Never fear, dear fans, for when the Cardinals visit Georgetown for their battle with the Knickerbockers, they will have a team that will be able to play a creditable baseball game. The Cardinals may lose, but it is a sure thing that the Knickerbockers will not have an easy time performing the trick. Do not bet your money on the Cardinals to win—betting is naughty and may cause trouble."

The Alexandria Torpedo Station baseball team will play the Ft. Myer baseball team at Ft. Myer Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. This is the second game of the season for the local boys. They have had games for the last three Saturdays afternoons as follows: Saturday, April 23, Red Sox A. C., at home; Saturday, April 30, Fort Washington at Fort Washington, and Saturday, May 7, with Fort Washington at home, but had to cancel them all on account of wet grounds. Next Saturday they will again line up against Fort Fyer on North Alfred street diamond. Game to start at 2:30 p. m. sharp. It is claimed by the local team that they always play a good clean game of baseball.

The public is invited to come to these games and judge for yourself. Seeing is believing.

men to Sprigg yesterday afternoon, told last night of the plight in which several hundred passengers on a noon day train found themselves when they reached the battle zone.

"Bullets were pepering down from the mountains when the train got in," he said, "Women and children screamed and cried in terror, while virtually every passenger on the train fell prone to the floors of the coaches for protection. I don't know whether any shots were aimed at the train. None of the passengers were injured."

Sergeant Peterson, who alighted at Sprigg with his squad, said his men were subjected to a hail of bullets before they could gain shelter in a cabin.

County officials of Mingo, in requesting Governor Morgan to ask for troops, said they were unable to cope with the situation.

A statement from the Governor's office last night said that "the greater part of the firing came from the Kentucky side," adding that reports to the State's Chief Executive were to the effect that two men had been killed.

"It is understood," said Governor Morgan's statement, "that the county officials of Pike county, Kentucky, made a similar request of Governor E. P. Morrow and that the latter would also ask for Federal troops.

HARDING A VEILED PROPHET

Washington, May 13.—President Harding was initiated into another Masonic order today, a special committee from Gallipolis Grotto No. 15, of Washington, administering the initiation ritual of the Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets in the executive offices. The service was condensed to occupy only a few minutes and confined to the presentation of a fez and badge and explanation of the history and purpose of the order.

During the day the President also received a social call from 200 Masons, members of the New York police, in Washington, on a pleasure trip.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Maj. John M. Seay, chief of police of Lynchburg, Va., was the guest of United States Deputy Marshal William Schoeni, this city, while attending the National League of Masonic Clubs in Washingto.

For games with the Tigers, the undefeated juveniles of last season, address C. Leslie Frazier, 803 South Fairfax street. They have played four games this season, losing only one. Stanley Miller, captain.

SOLD STOCK IN LEAGUE

Chicago, May 13.—Stock in the League of Nations, at $10 a share is the latest bargain to be offered to the Chicago investing public. Department of Justice agents today began searching for the men who have victimized numerous persons by selling the stock, collecting 25 per cent of the price in advance of delivery.

The League of Nations was represented as the greatest organization in the world, and prospective purchasers were told dividends would be large because of the great value of the League to humanity.

DRY AGENTS SET NETS FOR LIQUOR SMUGGLERS

Philadelphia, May 13.—Custom officials of this city are planning a round up of liquor smugglers said to be operating extensively along the Atlantic Coast.

Men prominent in many coast cities are said to be involved in a big smuggling plot. The customs men say they have evidence steamers have been bringing liquor from foreign ports and have been enabled to unload cargoes through a fleet of schooners, speedy auxiliary boats and similar craft operating as fishing smacks.

Seaplanes, it is believed, sometimes are used to carry the liquor or to report the approach of the freighter to the masters of the small craft who go out to meet it. Atlantic City is regarded by Charles R. Kurtz, Surveyor of Customs of the Eleventh district, as one of the chief landing places of the smugglers.

Denial That Sforza Will Resign

Rome, May 13.—Reports were printed in today's newspapers that Count Sforza, the Foreign Minister, had tendered his resignation to Premier Giolitti, with the idea of entering the diplomatic service, probably as Ambassador to France.

These reports, when called to the attention of the Government, however, met with a formal denial.

WIFE OF MARTYR SURGEON KNEW HE WAS DOOMED

Philadelphia, May 13.—Knowing almost as soon as her husband that his death was virtually inevitable after he accidentally inoculated himself with disease germs while operating on a patient three weeks ago, Mrs. Margaret Bergeron has accepted the death of Dr. Pierre N. Bergeron with stoic calm and resignation.

When Dr. Bergeron came home from the hospital and told her of pricking his finger with the needle while operating on a pleural pneumonia patient she knew that it meant his death, since he had told her so often of similar cases where the surgeon died. He also asked her to make preparations for his funeral, and since then she has been living daily in expectation of the end.

The surgeon was operating on Thomas Boyd when the accident occurred. He exclaimed: "This is the last of me," but continued the operation and saved Boyd's life. The latter is convalescing and has not been told of Dr. Bergeron's death.

JANITOR PRAISES CHASCO-VIN

"Two bottles of Chasco-Vin made me feel like a new man. It is the greatest tonic I ever took. I used to be always tired and my whole system was out of gear. If you are run down and have to force yourself at every turn my advice to you is to try Chasco Vin as I did." Thomas Hobon, Claire St., Camden, N. J.

There is only one Chasco-Vin agency in Alexandria, Edgar Warfield Jr., Corner King and Pitt Sts.

Get out of the rut! Drive away the billiousness and constipation that are keeping you headachy, sick, miserable or full of cold. Feel splendid always by taking Cascarets occasionally. Never gripe or inconvenience. Children love Cascarets too. 10, 25, 50 cents.

Albany, N. Y., May 13.—Appointment of Charles E. Ogden of Rochester as canal publicity agent was announced by the State Superintendent of Public Works, Charles L. Cadle, today.

WOMAN ACCUSED OF KILLING SIX

Honolulu, May 13.—Mrs. Paul Vincent Southard, 28, also known as Mrs. Lyda Meyer, was held by the police here yesterday on orders from Los Angeles in connection with the deaths of four of her husbands, a brother-in-law and a child by one of the men she married.

Paul Southard, whom she married in Los Angeles last November, told the police here she tried to get him to take out a $10,000 life insurance policy. Southard is a petty officer on the U. S. S. Monterey, stationed at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

Mrs. Southard according to the police has agreed to return without extradition papers, which are being prepared.

Salt Lake, City, May 13.—Lyda Southard, arrested in Honolulu today, is specifically charged with the murder of her fourth husband, Edward F. Meyer, at Twin Falls, Idaho, September 7, 1920, V. H. Ormsby, Deputy Sheriff at Twin Falls, announced in Los Angeles yesterday, according to a dispatch from that city. The Deputy Sheriff stated that the woman married Vincent Southard November 20 last.

Prosecuting Attorney Frank Y. Stephan, of Twin Falls county, Idaho, said Mrs. Southard's matrimonial record was being investigated for the purpose of determining the causes and fixing the responsibility for the death of three other former husbands an infant child by Robert Dooley, her first husband and Dooley's brother Edward.

Insurance in which Mrs. Southard was the beneficiary was carried on the lives of all five men, Stephan said, and of which she is sai dto have collected at least $9,500.

Prosecutor Stephan said he had in his possession evidence which would establish that poison caused the deaths of Robert C. Dooley, William G. McHaffie, Harlan C. Lewis and Edward F. Meyer, respectively her first, second, third and fourth husbands, and Edward Dooley, brother of her first husband. Stephan said the bodies of these men had been exhumed and the contents of their stomachs analyzed and that a deadly poison had been found. The poison in each case was said to have ben the same.

Cat in Coffin Buried In Owner's Family Plot

Bridgeton, N. J., May 13.—There was a novel funeral ceremony here today when a pet cat was sent down from Phila., 40 miles, in a coffin by railroad train, and duly consigned to a tomb in the family plot of its owner in Broad Street Cemetery.

Flowers were furnished by a Bridgeton florist and the sexton of the cemetery had charge of the interment. The cat belonged to Miss Hannah Beebe, who was formerly a resident of Bridgeton.

Woman Freed After 16 Years in Wire Cage Has First Auto Ride

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., May 13.—After sixteen years of confinement in a wire cage in her home on a farm near Round Lake, Miss Bessie Hall, 31, was released yesterday for the first time. She left the inclosure to accompany physicians to a hospital for a physical examination.

Riding in an automobile for the first time, en route to the institution, she questioned the physicians about scenes near her home, which were totally unknown to her.

Reports reaching the Humane Society recently of the young woman's incarceration in the wire inclosure.

Investigations by the society disclosed that the confinement was ordered by her mother, following, it was said, a temporary mental derangement when Mis sHall was 15 years of age. This method was used by her mother, the society ascertained, to prevent the girl running away.

Physicians who recently examined Miss Hall at her home reported she was sane, but probably suffering from tuberculosis. After the second examination yesterday they announced that Miss Hall would, in all probability, be removed to the County Tuberculosis Sanitarium.

Purina Chows Save Baby Chicks

DON'T try to raise these tender chicks on grains, stale bread, meal and such grain products, any more than you'd feed a baby cornbread. Such rations, being deficient in protein and minerals, result in bowel trouble, slow feathering and scrawny development.

Chicks Saved Pay Feed Bill

Suppose Purina Chows saved just two more chicks out of every dozen hatched. That alone would pay your feed bill. But Purina Chows do more than just save chicks.

Double Development Guaranteed

Purina Chows are guaranteed to make your chicks grow twice as fast as grain feeds or you get your money back. Don't you owe it to yourself and chicks to call us up or drop in?

Jury Acquits Woman Who Egged on Slayer

Herkimer, N. Y., May 13.—Mrs. Jennie Werner was acquitted yesterday of first degree murder in connection with the death of her husband, Henry Werner, a farmer by a jury which had been deliberating since early last evening. She was charged with plotting the murder with Rutger B. Warder, a confessed slayer of Werner, who was brought back from the death house at Sing Sing prison to testify against the widow.

Mrs. Werner thought at first that she had been found guilty, relapsed into hysterics, repeatedly denying that she was guilty.

It is said that the promise of the sheriff to take care of her and see that she came to no harm when she was being questioned after the discovery of the murder, was considered by the jury as a promise of immunity if she told all she knew about her husband's murder, and this was disregarded as an offset to the confession in which she admitted having urged Warder to kill her husband.

40 Texas Convicts Mutiny, Seize Arms And Shoot Their Way to Liberty

Huntsville, Texas, May 13.—Forty State convicts, many of them armed, mutinied today, stormed the arsenal, shot two guards and fled.

Thirty-three are still at large today. Hundreds of armed officials and citizens are scouring the country for a radius of 75 miles. Seven have been recaptured. Posses closed in on four others just before nightfall and a gunfight is imminent.

Six of the convicts obtained pistols and charged on the front gate of the prison, then charged guards on the inside of the prison walls and broke into the armory, obtaining shotguns They then returned to the inside walls, making another charge on the guards. The prisoners escaped by way of the east railway gates. About 25 shots were fired by the convicts The guards returned the fire, but it was not known whether any of the escaping men were hit.

Girl Barricades Self From Convict's Revenge

Boston, May 13.—Fearful lest she be the object of his vengeance, Miss Emma "Tiny" Harris, a pretty manicurist, barricaded herself in her apartment yesterday upon learning of the escape from State prison of Victor Nelson, otherwise known as the "Human Fly", who was sent to jail for an attack upon her several months ago.

Mrs. Elizabeth Learmouth, 70 years old, who was knocked down and injured by Nelson when he escaped following the assault upon the girl, is also in terror. The police have given assurance that they will watch out for the appearance of Nelson in that vicinity.

Miss Harris' fear is so great that she does not dare appear upon the street or go to her manicure parlors to work. She says she will never feel safe until Nelson is recaptured.

"I am afraid he will seek revenge upon me because I am directly responsible for his going to jail," said Miss Harris, "I have put my jewelry and money in a safe deposit vault, and I will not leave this house until I am sure I am safe from him. He is a dangerous man."

The police are watching the home of a girl in Cambridge, said to be Nelson's sweetheart, and also the home of her brother in the South End.

Quality—

IN THE days of '49 men from the north and east and south rushed across the continent and into the wilds of new California, undergoing great privation and sacrifices in quest of—Quality.

The old gold rush of California is an outstanding example of man's great ambition to obtain the best, to achieve and realize Quality.

We, too, have striven and worked toward this same goal in the Ice Cream Industry. We experimented in our laboratories for years, seeking diligently, early and late, to perfect Ice Cream beyond the then existing standard; we worked energetically to achieve a quality, a purity and a deliciousness never attained before by Ice Cream manufacturers.

Our search and our energy has now been rewarded by our personally discovered formula and method of Ice Cream production. (Patents applied for to protect our process.) You can now procure through your dealer the result of our efforts, the new "Velvet Kind," an Ice Cream superior in quality and texture and deliciousness to any Ice Cream ever made.

We do NOT use gelatin, gums, starch, fillers, imitation flavors or foreign substitutes for cream—

But We DO use pure cream, pure milk, pure cane sugar and genuine natural flavors as its ingredients.
